

“FRESH” Coming to the CAMEO, September 20

Following close on the heels of the amazingly successful screenings of Food, Inc., Sustainable Sandhills and the CAMEO Art House Theatre in Fayetteville are pleased to present the film FRESH on Sunday afternoon, September 20 at 1pm. Tickets are only $5 per person! Please bring cash or check, as we will not be able to take credit card payments for tickets.

Immediately following the film, a discussion will be led by local food and sustainability advocates Luci Fernandez and Melinda Harrington!

FRESH celebrates the farmers, thinkers and business people across America who are re-inventing our food system. Forging healthier, sustainable alternatives, they offer a practical vision of our food and our planet's future. FRESH addresses an ethos that has been sweeping the nation and is a call to action America has been waiting for.

Thanks to our generous Sponsor and Host – the CAMEO Art House Cinema!

If you aren't able to attend this showing of FRESH at the CAMEO, Sustainable Sandhills will be screening the film in other counties (usually in libraries or County Extension offices) this fall. Check the SS Events Calendar for the date, time and location of a screening in your community!

And don't forget to take the Sustainable Sandhills Local Food Survey.
It's SO EASY and SO IMPORTANT! Link to the online survey.
