

Here Comes 2010 at the Rooster's Wife!

The Rooster's Wife has just released their 2010 schedule of concerts and Janet Kenworthy has done it again!

If you missed the grand opening of their new gallery venue in historic downtown Aberdeen in October 2009, the new digs alone are worth the trip. The venue is known as the Poplar Knight Spot and is at 114 Knight Street in Aberdeen (near the corner of Poplar and Knight Streets).

This innovative and community-based nonprofit organization has been presenting one of the most diverse and amazing set of performing artists IN THE WORLD since 2006 right here in the Sandhills and they need your support! Their January-March 2010 schedule is outlined below. Janet is always looking for more, so it's likely she'll be announcing more great shows in addition to what is listed here. The best way to keep up with their schedule is to subscribe to their newsletter and watch their website. You can do both by clicking here.

Buy tickets online, pay with a check or cash at the door, and make reservations with a call to 910-944-7502. Children under 12 are always free at the Rooster's Wife. Shows typically start at 6pm, and there is not a bad seat in the house!

January 23 – Jon Shain Trio with special guests The Grandsons.

January 31 – Bearfoot

February 5 – Mike Compton and Joe Newberry, with Amelia's Mechanics

February 11 – The Gravy Boys

February 14 – Angel Band

February 16 – Scott Ainslie and Glenis Redmond perform Black, White and Blues

February 26 – The Carter Brothers

March 7 – Sara Grey and Kieron Means

March 13 – Road Song

March 20 – Shannon Whitworth

Check the website or call ahead for showtimes and ticket prices.

Here is a sample of what some of the performers LOOK like – and it's not a bad looking group! Check their websites for what they SOUND like!

The Bearfoot Band.

Amelia's Mechanics.

The Grandsons.

Scott Ainslie and Glenis Redmond.

Shannon Whitworth.

