Second Annual Regional Sustainability Symposium Scheduled for November 30th

Sustainable Sandhills is partnering with the Moore County Chamber of Commerce for the second annual Regional Sustainability Symposium. The event will be held on Wednesday November 30th, from 8:00am to 3:00pm at the Pinehurst Resort in Pinehurst, North Carolina.

This year's Symposium will bring in speakers from around the region to discuss creating and implementing more sustainable models for both businesses and communities. Keynote speakers include the NC Department of Commerce and Ron Dodson, International Sustainability Council Chairman and President of Audubon Lifestyles. Breakout sessions will not only demonstrate how sustainability can provide economic benefits to your business or community, but will share planning and funding strategies for implementing change. The Symposium ends with an interactive group planning exercise that highlights the tradeoffs that must be made in today's challenging economic climate.

Whether you are a small businessperson or someone interested in local sustainability efforts, the second annual Regional Sustainability Symposium has something for you.
